VIOLENT FIRE ON 27 MILE FRONT

Two Hundred Thousand Men Participated in the Allied Attack

GERMANS YIELD GROUND AT HARDECOURT

Retire From First to Second Line Trenches Over Two Mile Front—Berlin Claims 2,000 British Killed in Attack on Frommes, Besides Nearly 500 Prisoners—Von Linsingen Retiring Before Advancing Russians at Confluence of Styr and Lipa.

The intensity of the British and French attacks against the German front north and south of the Somme river in Northern France appears to have lessened greatly, according to the latest official statements. London declares a full halt has been made on the British front and the Paris official statement of Friday night gives no activity along the whole front from North of the Somme to Switzerland.

In the salient of Lys, however, the Germans entered the lines held by General Haig's forces, but were ejected subsequently, London asserts.

The Anglo-French attacks against the German line north and south of the Somme on Thursday were fruitless, according to Berlin, except on a two mile front south of Hardecourt where the Germans retired from first to second line trenches about eight hundred kilometers in the rear.

The attack, Berlin states, was preceded by a violent artillery fire on a front of more than 27 miles and was participated in by more than 200,000 men.

British Lost 2,500 Men, Berlin Says. North of La Bassée and attack Wednesday by the British in the region of Frommes resulted in the British losing more than 2,500 men killed and nearly 500 men made prisoners.

Deister Floods Check Russians. Floods on the Dnieper preventing an advance further into Galicia from the east and east for the time being, according to the latest official statement, the Russian advance toward the Austrian-German border, below Vladimir-Volynsk, Central Powers Admit Retirement.

Both Berlin and Vienna admit the retirement of the Russian forces from the region of the Confluence of the Styr and Lipa rivers to Berestechko, north of Brody.

Petrograd Claims 1,600 Prisoners. Petrograd asserts the retirement of the Russian forces from the region of the Confluence of the Styr and Lipa rivers to Berestechko, north of Brody.

Russian Advances Against Turks. In addition to capturing Gurnukhaneh, 45 miles northeast of Balbut, the Russians in Turkish region are advancing in the direction of the city.

Artillery fighting appears to occupy the opposing forces on the Austro-Italian front generally. Rome, however, reports a withdrawal of further trenches on Monte Malo.

SAVARIANS COUNTED. 2,000 BRITISH DEAD. Berlin Claims Repulse at Frommes and Denies Allies' Figures.

Berlin, July 21 via Paris 7:15 p. m.—The war office today gave out a contradiction of the British official communication of Thursday sent by the British press, claiming that the British had lost 2,500 men and nearly 500 prisoners.

First Trenches Abandoned at Hardecourt. The British press bureau appends a note to the German communication pointing out that the British had lost 2,500 men and nearly 500 prisoners.

Counted 2,000 Dead Britishers. "An attack by the British in the region of Frommes, which was repulsed, we have established, by two strong divisions. The brave Bavarian division, before whose front the attack took place, counted on the ground in front of them more than two thousand men killed and brought in hitherto 400 prisoners, including ten officers, and 16 machine guns.

On both sides of the Somme the enemy yesterday, as was expected, prepared to deliver a final blow, but it failed after the strongest fire preparation over a front of about forty kilometers (about 25 miles).

Attacking from south of Frommes to west of Verdun, the German salient at the wood of Verdun.

Cabled Paragraphs

Martial Law Revoked in Spain. Madrid, July 21 via Paris 7:15 p. m.—The government today revoked its declaration of martial law. The military censorship of press despatches, however, remains in force in order to prevent the publication of comment on the European war.

PROTEST AGAINST BRITISH BLACKLIST. Fifty Firms Will Fight Trading With the Enemy Act—Government Inquiry.

Washington, July 21.—Inquiry as to why certain business concerns in the United States have been placed on a blacklist under Great Britain's trade restrictions, the government today directed to the British government by the state department today through both the British embassy here and Ambassador Page at London.

At the time Mr. Polk had been heard that Ambassador Page had been handed in the country on the so-called blacklist, the government today directed to the British government by the state department today through both the British embassy here and Ambassador Page at London.

The understanding here that the French foreign office has sent to London a draft of a note and that dispatch of the joint reply is being delayed there.

A request for general information concerning the operation of the act to firm in the United States already had been made informally to the British embassy as a preliminary step to formal representations. Today's action was based upon complaints from the concern about which the department was inquired.

The action of Great Britain in placing nearly 100 firms and corporations in the United States on the so-called blacklist was discussed today at the cabinet meeting. Indication was expressed, but it was agreed that no course of action should be determined until the statement department completely an investigation.

Firms Organize in New York. New York, July 21.—Representatives of fifty of the 82 blacklisted by Great Britain today met today to form an organization to fight the action of the British government. Although the meeting lasted only a few minutes, a public statement made at its close was that "it was unanimously decided upon to make Mr. Hanly's name the center of a plan of action."

It was learned from individual members, however, that a temporary organization with officers had been formed and that a course of action had been outlined.

The meeting was held in the rooms of the German-American Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Heinrich Charles, secretary of the chamber, "the impression must not go abroad that the chamber has any connection with the organization," he stated, "merely extended to the blacklisted firms the courtesy of meeting here."

Information is sought specifically regarding a number of firms, the names of which have not been made public by the department. There is no discussion of the matter in the inquiry, that matter being left for attention after the American government is fully informed on the facts.

ANOTHER SUBMARINE EXPECTED MONDAY. Deutschland's Captain Says He'll See Baltimore Friends Again in a Few Weeks.

Baltimore, Md., July 21.—Captain Paul Koehn and fourteen members of the crew of the submarine Deutschland were feted tonight by thousands of Baltimore citizens at a celebration at the city hall under the auspices of the local German and American societies.

Dr. Koehn, who was in the city for a brief address in which he said: "I will see you again within a few weeks."

Congressman G. W. Edmunds of Philadelphia, visited the Deutschland's after the afternoon and asked Captain Koehn to return to the United States.

Lloyd steamer Neckar to permit him to board the Neckar for a view of the city.

More passages were being issued to no Neckar, but Captain Koehn invited him back on Monday, when another submarine, just like the Deutschland, will be in, he said.

The steamer Neckar, which was reported that 4,000 men had been ordered to board the Neckar for a view of the city.

ALLIED WARSHIPS PATROL OFF VIRGINIA CAPES. Have Drawn in Close to Three-mile Limit.

Norfolk, Va., July 21.—Allied warships have been lying off the coast of Virginia for several days in closer to the three-mile limit today and began a rigid patrol, constantly moving along a line of perhaps 15 miles.

The exact number of ships in the patrol is unknown here.

A rumor was current today that German submarines acted as a convoy to the Deutschland on her trip and are waiting a short distance out to sea to return with her. There was no direct evidence tending to confirm the story.

LEAST NEW CASES SINCE FIRST OF JULY. 80 Victims on Friday—But Hell Will Increase Prisoner Numbers.

New York, July 21.—Although reports to the department of health today showed a decrease in the number of infantile paralysis cases, the smallest number since July 3, the authorities today warned the public not to become complacent.

Emerson asserted he would not be at all surprised if an increase instead of a decrease was followed by tomorrow, owing to the intense heat.

The fact that many nearby cities have quarantined against New York today to a discussion of the advisability of establishing a detention camp here.

Mexican Embargo is Now Lifted

BUT RESTRICTIONS RIGID ON MUNITIONS OF WAR.

CONGESTION ON BORDER

Industries in Mexico Will Profit by Broad Order of Treasury Department—4,000 Carranza's Troops Embarked Against General Cantu in Lower California.

Washington, July 21.—All restrictions upon the movement of exports to Mexico except munitions of war and machinery for their manufacture were removed today by order of the treasury department.

Without the formality of a proclamation, the general prohibition against the export of munitions of war to Mexico was put into effect by custom.

THE RED QUEEN'S COUNTRY

Have your business efforts led you into the Red Queen's country? You remember how "Alice in Wonderland" ran and ran until her legs were tired only to find that after all of her effort she was just where she started?

"Where I come from," she said to the Red Queen, "we arrive somewhere else when we run like this;" whereupon the Red Queen informed her that "in her country" it was necessary to run ever so much faster to stay in the same place.

If your business is running without getting you anywhere, the morning newspaper will help you out of the Red Queen's country.

The morning newspaper is a modern pioneer—a leader in the world of everyday affairs. It ushers in the day—makes its appearance in the home ready to start the reader on his day's journey—and the suggestions it contains are received at the moment when they will have the greatest influence.

"Run" your advertising in the morning newspapers—in Norwich choose The Bulletin—and you will "arrive."

Dr. Landrith's nomination was unanimous for the other candidate had withdrawn.

Mr. Hanly's nomination came on the first ballot had followed a number of hurried conferences between advocates of the candidacy of William Sulzer.

The vote for Mr. Hanly was decisive. He received 440 votes, as against 150 for Mr. Sulzer.

After the nomination of Dr. Landrith, the assembly arose, sang the Declaration of Independence, and then adjourned.

The platform, with but one change in the draft presented by the resolutions committee—the insertion of the plank declaring in favor of the initiative, referendum and recall—was adopted early in the day's session.

Mr. Sulzer, who had remained at his hotel, later characterized the convention's action as a "steam roller victory," but added:

"I am not a candidate for the nomination, but I am not disappointed that it has gone to Mr. Hanly."

A resolution was adopted by the convention to endorse the platform in the platform favoring freedom in the practice of Christian Science and chiropractic.
